

Cable Punch Down Tool

DATA SHEET

☎ +44 20 8895 6455
✉ info@webbinfra.com
🌐 www.webbinfra.com

Multifunction cable punch down tool

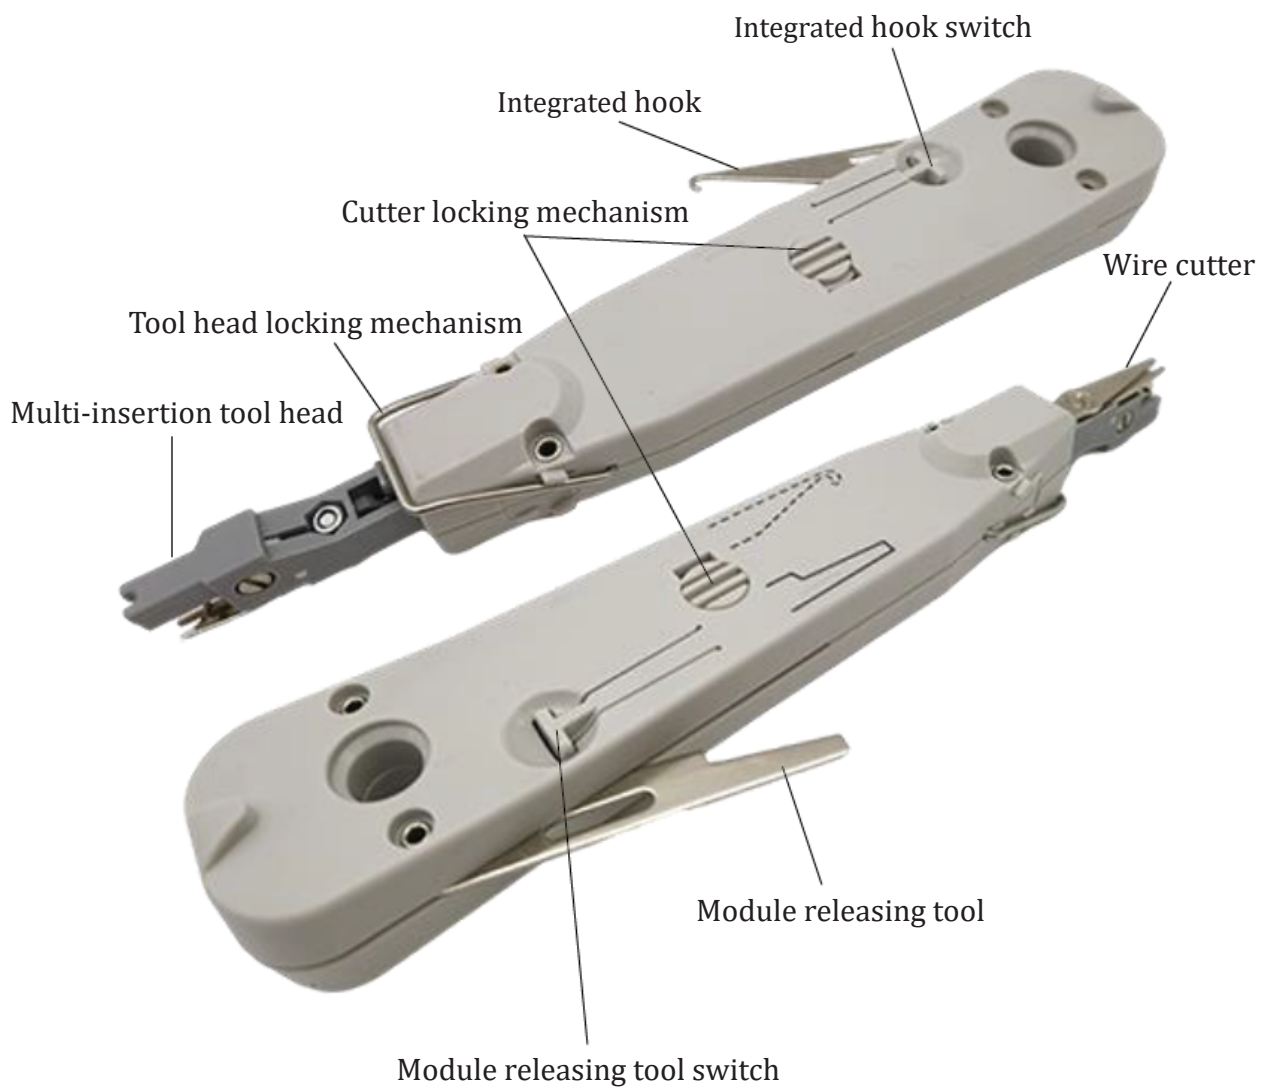

Webb multifunction insertion tool is used for inserting wires into insulation displacement connectors on module blocks, patch panels, keystone modules, and surface mount boxes. Its integrated tool ends are used for cutting, inserting, and terminating wires with ease. It can be handheld due to its compact size and is of premium quality making it essential for all network and data cable management technicians.

Features

- Compact size for optimum handling
- Suitable for the termination of 22- 26 AWG cables
- Integrated spring-loaded blade for cutting and removal of excess material
- Multifunctional tool head suitable for different variations of block insertion
- Incorporates an extraction hook that assists in the removal of terminated wires
- Consists of switches for integrated blade and hook for optimum operation
- High impact plastic body
- Hardened metal blades
- Available in various block type
- Available in ivory white and grey color

Specifications are subject to change without notice based on technical recommendations and related product enhancements*

Components

Specifications are subject to change without notice based on technical recommendations and related product enhancements*

Ordering Information

Part number	Description
C.10.PDT.MK.W	Multifunction cable punch down tool

Specifications are subject to change without notice based on technical recommendations and related product enhancements*